ANNUAL STUDENT RECOGNITION AWARDS

Why Apply?

Many student leaders give generously of their knowledge, time and energy to serve and improve the University and/or community at large. These committed students rarely receive formal acknowledgment or compensation for their efforts. The following awards are offered to publicly recognize and celebrate the initiative and outstanding work of those students who represent the very best attributes and accomplishments of UC Davis students.

THE AWARDS

Senior Awards

The Mary Jeanne Gilhooly Award honors the graduating woman believed to be the most outstanding in the areas of leadership, scholarship, integrity and service in the campus community. The award was established in 1942 to memorialize the achievements of Mary Jeanne Gilhooly. Recognized as an “unofficial goodwill ambassador to every prospective Aggie,” she died while a student at UC Davis.

The Veloyce Glenn Winslow, Jr. Award honors the graduating man believed to be the most outstanding in the areas of leadership, scholarship, integrity and service in the campus community. This award was established in 1966 to memorialize the achievements of Glenn Winslow, Jr., who died while serving as vice president of the student body at UC Davis.

The Chancellor will present each Gilhooly and Winslow award recipient with $500 and a small gift at his or her commencement.

Junior Awards

The Margarita Robinson Student Leadership Award honors up to three students for their outstanding service and leadership through involvement in recognized student groups and activities. Established in 1982, this award serves as a memorial to Margarita Robinson, who was housemother at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity for 30 years and a founder of the Prytanean Honor Society at UC Davis.

Each recipient of the Margarita Robinson Student Leadership Award will receive $100 and a small gift..

SELECTION CRITERIA

The following criteria will be used for all awards:

Overall Contribution: Nominees should be widely recognized as leaders held in high esteem by other students. They must have made a significant contribution through participation in campus or community service. Evidence of socially responsible, ethical and outstanding leadership either in specific positions of responsibility or while engaged in service activities are indicators of a nominee's qualifications for the award. Self-nominations are acceptable.

In addition to the above, the following information is specific to each award.
